The T. E. Lawrence Society is an organisation which contracts with the College for the use of facilities, but which has no formal connection with The University of Oxford. All speakers' views are their own. All timings, arrangements and scheduled events may be subject to change caused by circumstances beyond the control of The T. E. Lawrence Society.

Booking confirmations, invoices and Symposium final details will be sent direct to delegates.

PLEASE COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING FORM

Please make your selection below for symposium sessions, college accommodation if required and meals. College bedrooms are typical of traditional Oxford colleges, all ensuite, mostly single rooms and with limited disabled provision. There is availability at either Keble College or Jesus College for accommodation on the Friday night, as currently we do not have enough rooms at Keble College for that night. We will note your preferences but cannot guarantee to provide the type of room or location of room you request.

Keble College (postcode OX1 3PC) is just behind St Giles, central Oxford, next to St. John's College. It is convenient for Park and Ride (including overnight stays) and city buses and a short taxi ride from Oxford railway station.

Some delegates prefer to stay in hotels or other venues nearby.
