

The Nineteenth Oxford Naval Symposium
Saturday 13th May 2023 St Anne's College, Oxford; Tsuzuki Lecture Theatre

'Sea to Ocean'

An historical glance at naval activity through the Middle Sea and into the Indian Ocean

Morning session:

Rob White & Martin Muncaster screen their film, 'Mers el Kebir, I Was There'

Dr Paul Brown: 'The Mystery of HM Submarine Urge'

Sim Comfort: 'Witness to the Battle of the Nile 1798: Capt. Ralph Willett Miller, HMS Theseus'

Dr Vaughan Michell: 'Commander Hogarth RNVR, TE Lawrence's Mentor'

Lunch: Buffet in the Ruth Deech Building

Afternoon session:

Kit Villiers: Introduction to The Alan Villiers Lecture Series

Guest Speaker:

John Johnson-Allen

'Admiral RE Wemyss and TE Lawrence: The Naval Connections'

David Willey, Curator Bovington Tank Museum: 'TE Lawrence and his love of Rolls Royces'

James Walters: 'New Insights into Operation Pedestal and the Pivotal Role of Malta'

Rear Admiral Chris Parry:

'East of Suez: The Royal Navy in WW2 and in the Future'

Displays of Naval items, prints, models and maritime history

Plus a sale of second hand naval and maritime books

Registration with coffee/tea from 09.15

10.00-13.00 morning session,

13.00 Lunch: Buffet in the Ruth Deech Building,

14.00-17.30 afternoon session

Day conference £59.00 to inc. coffee, lunch, wine and tea

Half day, without lunch: £20 to inc. coffee/tea

To book: phone 07790 928825 or email: secretary1@britannia-naval-research-association.com

The Annual Oxford Naval Symposium is organised by the

Britannia Naval Research Association

www.britannia-naval-research-association.com